In most cases, we can usually answer many of your immigration questions on the first phone call or in person.

In this consultation, we will estimate and identify your immigration situation and problems, and provide appropriate solutions.

After our law firm receives the form, our representative will contact you as soon as possible and help you make an appointment to see a lawyer.

Consultation fee is of $ 175.00.

Payment

- In-person consultation: Cash, credit card, check or money order. Credit card payments can be processed via PayPal on our website. Please note there is an additional fee for using this service.
- Telephone consultation: Use the PayPal link on our website to process payment. Please note there is an additional fee for using this service. You can also send a payment or money order to the law firm prior to the date of a scheduled consultation.

Any checks and money order should be made payable to Reiner & Pleva, PLLC.

Purpose of Consultation:

Consulting with us does not mean establishing a lawyer/client relationship. The lawyer/client relationship is established only after the parties have signed the contractual agreement. The only way we can be your lawyer is to sign a contractual agreement with my company.
